KViZD

Ilirija d.d. ARSENAL ILIRIJA TRAVEL

X. MEMORIJAL MIRKA MIOČIĆA ZADAR 2026.

TEAM QUIZ (1/4)

GLAVNI POKROVITELJ

GRAD ZADAR

DONATORI

TURISTIČKA ZAJEDNICA GRADA ZADRA

otpbanka

ZADARSKA ŽUPANIJA

OPĆINA RAŽANAC

POKROVITELJI NAGRADA

MARASKA

PIZZERIA Broj 1

BAKMAZ

SOLANA PAG

cromaris

NEAREST THE BULL:

According to Google Maps, how long (in kilometers) was the bypass between the cities shown, after the 2019 flood made the only paved road between the two places impassable?

1. According to his son, which American composer died of a heart attack caused by shock because his song, which you can hear in the background, did not win the Academy Award for Best Original Song at the 1991 awards?

2. Designed in the shape of a hyperbolic paraboloid, the double-curved roof structure of the London's Olympic Park velodrome looks like the product of which brand, from which it gets its popular nickname?

3. After the single Massive Attack was dropped due to poor commercial success, the song Your Love became the lead single on Pink Friday, the 2010 debut album of which female rapper?

4. Dubbed the "Oasis of the Little Birds" in scripts dating back to the 13th century, in which legendary city in the Sahara can one find vast amounts of treasure? According to the lost Arabic manuscript Kitab al Kanuz, one can also find a sleeping king and queen there.

5. The reign of the French kings Francis II, Charles IX, and Henry III is in historiography colloquially referred to as – whose era?

6. Often mutated or expressed at high levels in tumor cells, which four-letter prefix denotes a gene that has the potential to cause cancer? Activation of the gene in question enables the survival of cells destined for apoptosis.

7. Translated from Sanskrit as formula, what term refers to an aphorism or a collection of aphorisms in the form of a manual? In Indian religions, it denotes ancient texts, while the one most famous, at least popculturally, is attributed to Vātsyāyana.

8. Allegedly named after a person who could not perform it in the two-handed version due to an amputation in 1797, what grappling hold can be "half" or "full", depending on whether one or two hands are being used to encircle the opponent's arm under the armpit?

9. Which adjective denotes the official name of the shown web browser, designed in the workshop of Brendan Eich, the creator of JavaScript and former CEO of Mozilla?

10. In order to legally separate other subsidiaries from its most significant one, which company formed a holding company in 2017, aptly named XXVI Holdings, Inc.?

11. At the mouth of which river was this photo taken?

12. Symbolized by the white crown Hadjet shown on the left, what was the name of the state marked in red on the map on the right, before Narmer's unification around 3100 BCE?

13. By her own account, which Norwegian actress did fashion model Bebe Buell see on the cover of TV Guide magazine just before going to the maternity ward on July 1, 1977?

14. In 1983 he tried to explain it by a lunar eclipse that occurred around that time. In 2011, the darkness that occurred during the last hours of whose life did physicist Colin Humphreys attribute to the Middle Eastern wind – the khamsin, which raises sand particles and causes reduced visibility?

15. While celebrating her 1000m gold at the last Winter Olympics, which athlete unbuttoned her suit to reveal a white Nike sports bra? Amid accusations of prohibited ambush marketing, IOC bureaucrats clarified that unbuttoning extremely tight suits is a common move for speed skaters immediately after a race to cool down and breathe easier.

16. The sentence „Richard Of York Gave Battle In Vain” is a mnemonic for remembering – what?

17. Hymn The Exaltation of Inanna was written by which Akkadian princess, daughter of Sargon the Great and high priestess of the Moon god in Ur, whom history remembers as the first named author of a literary work, more than a millennium before Homer?

18. First shown on Broadway in 2018, 23 years after the namesake album, for which musical did Alanis Morisette write two new songs – Smiling and Predator?

19. Known in local legend for unconventionally extinguishing a burning fuse, which bronze statue "owns" an official wardrobe filled with miniature outfits? The cheerful changing ceremony is regularly accompanied by the brass band Fanfare du Meyboom.

20. A prisoner and a Nobel laureate toast with what cocktail, first made in New Orleans during World War II?

21. Paul McCartney, Stevie Nicks, Avril Lavigne, Ciara, Fergie, Tate McRae and Ice Spice entertained guests on July 3, 2026 in which arena, transformed into a lavish space for a spectacular event? Twenty days earlier, three Villanova alumni had brought the audience into a trance in the exact same location.

22. Conquered in 1913 by Frederic Boissonnas, Daniel Baud-Bovy and a local barefoot hunter, the 2917-meter-high Mitikas peak is the highest point of which mountain? It is only eight meters short of claiming the title of the highest Balkan peak.

23. Known in pencil and paper form since World War I, which two-player strategy guessing game received its first physical, plastic version in 1967 with the Milton Bradley edition?

24. Similar to the scene depicted in Brooks' film, which Swiss man experienced the same numerical reduction of his own invention? Due to high printing costs, he complied with the publisher's request and threw out five cards, unknowingly standardizing the "schizophrenic" test.

25. With the intention of bringing together different people from the audiovisual industry, the Marché du Film has been held since 1959 in which city?

KVIZD

Ilirija d.d. ARSENAL ILIRIJA TRAVEL

X. MEMORIJAL MIRKA MIOČIĆA ZADAR 2026.

TEAM QUIZ (2/4)

GLAVNI POKROVITELJ

GRAD ZADAR

DONATORI

TURISTIČKA ZAJEDNICA GRADA ZADRA

otpbanka

ZADARSKA ŽUPANIJA

OPĆINA RAŽANAC

POKROVITELJI NAGRADA

MARASKA

PIZZERIA Broj 1

BAKMAZ

SOLANA PAG

cromaris

1. Nicknamed "the Sorcerer of the Guitar" and "the Grand Maître of Zairean music", Franco Luambo was for more than 20 years the frontman of the TPOK Jazz band, one of the most influential bands in which musical genre?

2. Now a museum, the red-and-white palace, named after Mount Potala, where the bodhisattva Avalokitesvara lived, was built in the 17th century by order of which ruler? To answer correctly you can also give his title, which means ocean in Mongolian, while his "surname" also means ocean in the local language.

3. Known for its knife production, the name of which Japanese island, located south of Kyushu, was synonymous with firearms until the modern period, as it was believed that Portuguese traders introduced them to Japan there in 1543?

4. Sadi Carnot established the second with the work Réflexions sur la puissance motrice du feu, the work of Rudolf Clausius and William Thomson established the first, while Nernst's theorem became the third. To enable a self-consistent definition of the state function of the system, the zeroth law of which branch of physics was subsequently established?

5. If a character has no respect for the rules and lives of others or for anything other than their own desires, the categorization of ethical and moral perspectives of characters in the game Dungeons & Dragons places them in which group, located in the lower right corner on the allignment 3x3 grid?

6. Although the name of the group ironically contrasted with her commitment to individualism, the followers of which writer formed the group The Collective in the 1950s, promoting objectivism?

7. What five words complete the last stanza of an 1868 minstrel song?

"One little Indian livin' all alone /

He got married _____.„

If by any chance you prefer its blackface variant; it's the same five words.

8. What is the name of the Japanese studio responsible for distributing Kurosawa's historical classics Seven Samurai and Yojimbo? By introducing films which featured monsters like Gojira, Mothra, and Ghidorah, and pioneering the use of special effects by a team led by master Eiji Tsuburaya, the company defined the kaiju genre.

9. In 2018, which Indian e-commerce platform was acquired by US retail giant Walmart in a $16 billion transaction?

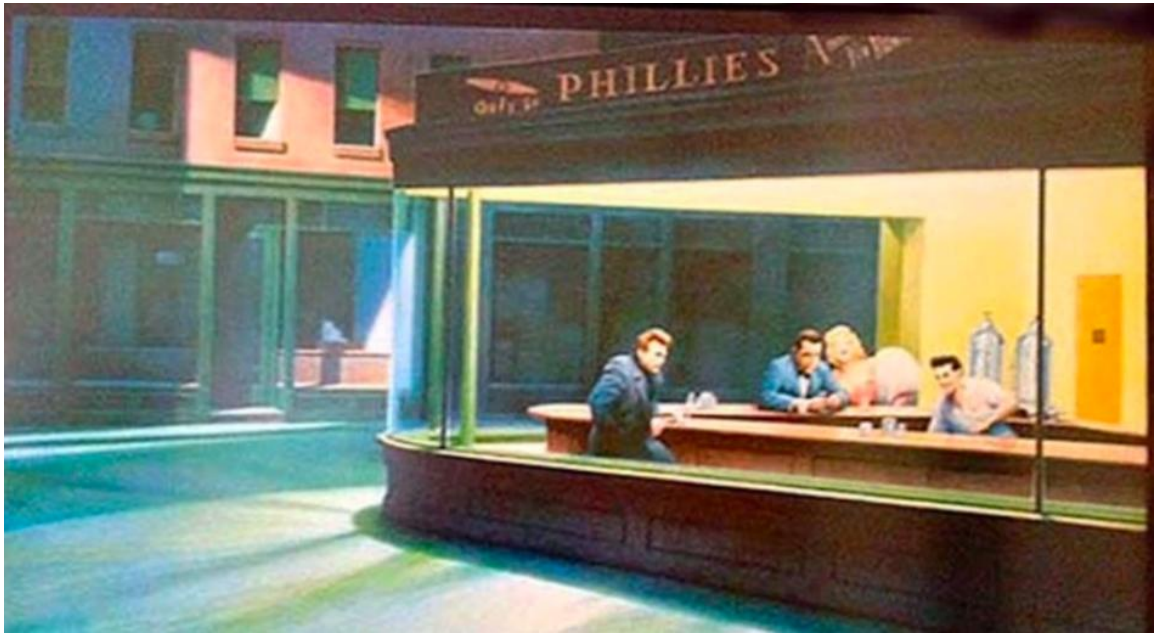

10. The governing organization of which sport awards the Mark of the Year award for one of the rare moves in team sports in which the body of an opposing player is used as a jumping aid? In addition to the official name mark, the move is also known in slang as specky, hanger, flyer, and screamer.

11. What surname were Samuel Sr. (Abraham Woodhull) and Samuel Jr. (Robert Townsend), leaders of the spy ring during the American Revolutionary War, known by?

12. What is the name of Luchino Visconti's debut 1943 film, an unauthorized adaptation of the novel The Postman Always Rings Twice? Brian De Palma's 1976 film has the same title in English, as does the last year's indie horror film, made for a paltry 750,000, which grossed almost half a billion dollars at the box office.

13. The Winnie and Wilbur picture book series by Valerie Thomas and Korky Paul, and the comic book series turned into a successful series featuring the cynical deuteragonist Salem Saberhagen, certainly do not take place in Montmartre, Paris, in the late 19th century, nor in Baltimore some fifty years earlier. What two words precisely define both Wilbur and Salem?

14. A reinterpretation of Edward Hopper's famous work, shown Gottfried Helnwein's painting served as the inspiration for the title of which Green Day song, lyrics of which describe the melancholy and lonely night walk of the rebel known as Jesus of Suburbia?

15. Which Senegalese man, shown on the right in the image, did James Bond just ask for directions to Tranquility Cave?

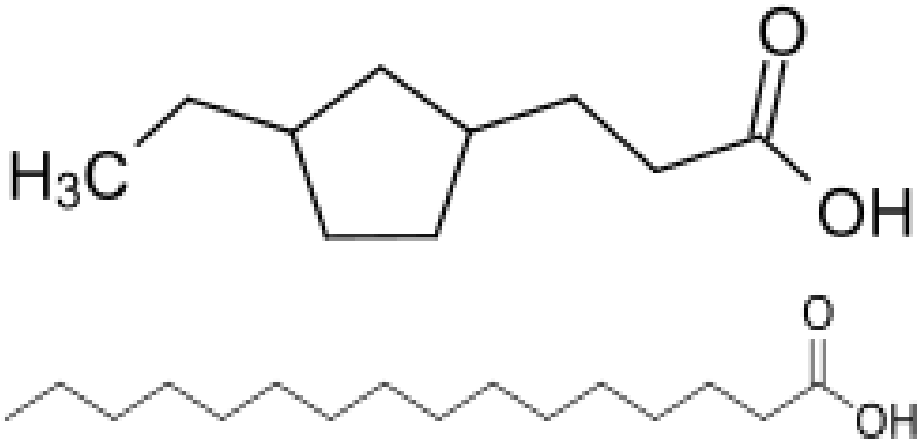

16. The current length of which athletics race was first set in 1908, so that it could start in front of the Windsor Castle and finish at the White City Stadium? The length is used as standard since the 1924 Olympics.

17. Changing government every six months since the Peace of the Pyrenees, which was signed there in 1659, the uninhabited Pheasant Island on the Bidasoa River border between France and Spain is the oldest living example of which political status?

18. Metaphorically titled after an ancient Japanese technique, on which 2015 Death Cab for Cutie album do the themes of the songs symbolize the band's "imperfect repair" after the departure of one of the founding members and the frontman's life of "putting together the pieces" after his split from Zooey Deschanel?

19. Popularized by the mantra of contract killer Vincent in Collateral – „two to the body, one to the head", a specific liquidation technique created during the conflict between the mercenary Mike Rousseau and the guerrillas, is named after which country, the first member of the Commonwealth without a British colonial past?

20. In 1942, a team led by Louis Fieser first produced which mixture in a Harvard laboratory? The formulae of its two most famous thickeners and gelling agents are shown in the image.

21. Which two national teams played the only group stage match of the last FIFA World Cup in which both participants were island nations, but weren't the largest nations on the island they inhabit (and constitutes most of their surface area)?

22. Systematized in the nineteenth century by the work of the Nordic fencing master Pehr Henrik Ling, the most widespread Western technique of which therapeutic practice is based on five basic movements: effleurage, petrissage, tapotement, friction and vibration?

23. By winning the La Liga title in 2026, which Portuguese player became the first footballer to win the championship titles in four of the Big Five European (association) football leagues?

24. Because of the decision that prohibited slavery north of 36°30' north latitude, which federal state ceded part of its territory in 1850, five years after joining the USA? Ceded land was not under anyone's jurisdiction until 1907 when it became part of Oklahoma.

25. Written at the beginning of the 14th century, whose work De Vulgari eloquentia was one of the first scholarly defenses of the use of the vernacular, against the dominant Latin and French and Provençal traditions in Italian literature?

KVIZD

Ilirija d.d. ARSENAL ILIRIJA TRAVEL

X. MEMORIJAL MIRKA MIOČIĆA ZADAR 2026.

TEAM QUIZ (3/4)

GLAVNI POKROVITELJ

GRAD ZADAR

DONATORI

TURISTIČKA ZAJEDNICA GRADA ZADRA

otpbanka

ZADARSKA ŽUPANIJA

OPĆINA RAŽANAC

POKROVITELJI NAGRADA

MARASKA

PIZZERIA Broj 1

BAKMAZ

SOLANA PAG

cromaris

1. Made from the powdered mineral cinnabar, the name of which orange-red pigment, widely used in art from antiquity to the Renaissance, stems from the name of the kermes beetle species used to obtain the dye?

2. In case you bring a physical copy with you, which 2008 Orhan Pamuk book will grant you free entry to the Istanbul institution of the same name?

3. Mexican Quintonil was third, Spanish Asador Etxebarri second (again), while the best restaurant in 2025 was which Peruvian fusion restaurant?

4. If by some chance Nicole Scherzinger, Apl.de.ap, Bruno Mars and Bella Poarch signed themselves respectively as Nicole Valiente, Allan Pineda, San Pedro Bayot (after their mother) and Belinda Batumbakal, it might be easier to discern that they originate from which Asian country?

5. Cal Kestis, the protagonist of the video games Fallen Order and Survivor, is one of the last adherents of which religion?

6. Although the region of the Solar System named after him undoubtedly exists, which astronomer, in a scientific paper from 1951, paradoxically determined its complete disappearance due to the scattering of material into deep space due to the action of Pluto's gravity?

7. Buffalo Sabres legend and champion with the Pittsburgh Penguins, Slovak hockey player Miroslav Šatan was often mentioned in the media during his career, especially in early April, as a new acquisition for which NHL franchise?

8. Holder of the title of Count of Misurata acquired during his term as colonial governor of Tripolitania, which entrepreneur and Mussolini's finance minister is credited with transforming the Venetian Lido into an elite resort, which included building the Excelsior Hotel, whose season he decided to extend in 1932 by founding the world's first film festival?

9. At the proposal of Tajikistan, in 2022 the UN General Assembly adopted a resolution declaring 2025 the International Year for the Conservation, and March 21 as official World day for – what? The date was apt as it was thematically followed by the already existing World Water Day, which is celebrated the day after.

10. Used as cuauhxicalli or perhaps temalacatl, the so called Tizoc stone was found in 1791 during the re-paving of which square?

11. Filmed as part of an international collaboration between Balkan productions, which 2018 TV series follows a father forced to commit murders for the mafia to protect his family? The title of the show uses the traditional Albanian social concept of honor, deeply rooted in local communities.

12. According to legend, what epic journey between the two places covered on the map actually took 87,645 hours longer than planned?

13. "Good evening, Major, I am [Eadweard] Muybridge and this is a reply to the letter you sent to my wife," said the inventor of the zoopraxiscope and the author of a chronophotographic series of six shots of _____ in motion, before shooting and killing his wife's lover, Major Harry Larkyns. Fill the blank with the noun.

14. Complete the meta-scene from the fifth season of Slow Horses with the character's name.

15. Dated between 200 BCE and 200 CE, the Natya Shastra system, written by Bharata Muni, represents the first true classification of – what? The classification was adapted in the 19th century by Victor-Charles Mahillon and then refined by Erich von Hornbostel and Curt Sachs.

16. The largest Σκιόθηρον in the world, the Vrihat Samrat Yantra, is located in Jaipur and was built out of stone in 1734, with an incredible 27 meters high gnomon. What term denotes the instrument that Roman architects, such as the famous Vitruvius, called the sciothericum?

17. What name is shared by the British company famous for the iconic 1950 Chef multi-function blender and the Japanese corporation known as the main supplier of radio communications equipment for the McLaren Formula 1 team? To legally protect themselves from lawsuits, both companies signed an international agreement that banned Europeans from producing audio equipment and Asians from making kitchen appliances.

18. In 1819, British colonial administrator Stamford Raffles founded a trading port in what modern-day country?

19. The Fella shown in the image is the mascot of a social media movement that based its logo and name on which organization? Like the meme, the movement in question is primarily directed against Russia?

20. Limacology, which studies gastropods, conchology, which studies shells, and teuthology, which studies cephalopods, are subdivisions of which branch of invertebrate zoology?

21. If the members of the sedevacantist movement are to be trusted, which country's highest position has been vacant since 1958 and the death of the monarch born Eugenio Pacelli?

22. Which multi-sport competition traditionally opens with the ceremonial reading of the Monarch's message, which has travelled to the member states in a baton, and closes with the performance of the instrumental part of Elgar's composition Pomp and Circumstances?

23. With a share of about seventy percent in total world production, the Republic of South Africa, thanks to the Bushveld geological complex, is the main producer of which precious metal, essential, among other things, for the production of automotive catalytic converters?

24. Sebastiaen Egbertsz was elected to the position in 1619, and Jan Deijman in 1656. Which later mayor became praelector anatomiae of the Amsterdam guild of surgeons in 1628?

25. The working title of which annual award was The Eddie, in honor of Thomas Edison who invented the phonograph? After a public competition, the name was given in honor of Emile Berliner's invention.

KVIZD

Ilirija d.d. ARSENAL ILIRIJA TRAVEL

X. MEMORIJAL MIRKA MIOČIĆA ZADAR 2026.

TEAM QUIZ (4/4)

GLAVNI POKROVITELJ

GRAD ZADAR

DONATORI

TURISTIČKA ZAJEDNICA GRADA ZADRA

otpbanka

ZADARSKA ŽUPANIJA

OPĆINA RAŽANAC

POKROVITELJI NAGRADA

MARASKA

PIZZERIA Broj 1

BAKMAZ

SOLANA PAG

cromaris

1. Just like the song you'll hear now, which battle was the subject of the Tennyson poem, which Bruce Dickinson aptly recited during the Rock in Rio concert?

2. Holding a bayonet in their left hand, who is in the center of the painting next to the boy with pistols who allegedly inspired Victor Hugo for the character of Gavroche in Les Miserables?

3. Given to Emperor Dodona to serve primarily as a weathervane, which magical title character of Rimsky-Korsakov's opera, based on Pushkin's fairy tale of the same name, uses his voice to warn the empire of impending danger?

4. As Robin Williams improvised most of his character's lines thus deviating too much from the original script, which animated film ultimately failed to receive an Oscar nomination for Best Adapted Screenplay?

5. In the Roman army, the optio was regularly chosen from the most experienced legionaries. What was the name of the commander of the unit in which the optio served as deputy commander?

6. What two-word term denotes peoples who's fictional logo is shown in the image?

7. Only two away from the theoretical maximum, at snooker World Open in Yushan, China on March 20, 2026, Ronnie O'Sullivan scored – how big a break?

8. Although she created Bella Swan's iconic wedding dress for the Twilight saga, which good girl, born María Carolina Josefina Pacanins y Niño, is best known to sillagophiles for her heels?

9. Emerging in Latin America in the 1990s, which informal literary movement, a direct and rebellious reaction to magical realism, symbolically combined a fictional literary village and a company that symbolizes globalization in its name, omitting one letter from the first term?

10. After he defeated them in the Battle of Hotin in 1673, which military leader and later king was dubbed "The Lion of Lechistan" by the Ottomans?

11. Serving as a base for light aircraft for panoramic sightseeing, the Botswanan city of Maun is the starting point for tourist trips to the delta of which river, located in the center of the Kalahari Desert?

12. After studying resin particles suspended in water under a microscope for a long time, what did physicist Jean Perrin precisely calculate back in 1909? He was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics on December 10, 1926, although it would have been more appropriate if the ceremony had taken place on June 23 of the same year.

13. Spike Lee's 2006 documentary When the Levees Broke focuses on the breach of raised ridges during which disaster a year earlier?

14. The second of her name, the marriage of which Cyrenaic princess to Ptolemy III completed the unification of Cyrenaica and Egypt? When her husband went to war in Syria, she cut off her hair in the temple as a vow for his safe return, and after the curls disappeared, she was comforted by the court astronomer Conon of Samos.

15. Visible in the image, what material are the traditional women's necklaces, characteristic for the Kurpije region in central Poland, primarily made of?

16. In visual arts, what French word is used to refer to the border between a painting and a frame intended to aesthetically highlight and protect a framed graphic work? The term is identical to the name of a 19th-century character for whose role in the Oscar-winning film, Mexican actor Cantinflas won a Golden Globe.

17. Both born in Germany, what surname is shared by the composer of the monumental eight-hour lullaby Sleep intended for an audience lying in bed during the performance, and the "most important living artist", the author of the Symphony of Light in the window of Cologne Cathedral?

18. Structured in the form of a popular dance step, in which novel by the recent Hungarian Nobel Prize winner are the chapters first counted forward from one to six, and then backward from six to one?

19. Once a Polynesian part of the British colony of Gilbert and Ellice, which country finances almost all of its infrastructure projects with profits from the sale of rights to its own internet domain, now indispensable for streaming services like Twitch?

20. Shown on a building in Buenos Aires is what type of artistic drawing, literally translated as the art of drawing thin lines?

21. Contrary to the term "bohrbug" which denotes a relatively easy-to-observe standard bug, what is the name of a bug that disappears or changes behavior the moment you try to study or debug it?

22. Olympic accolades of which country include the gold medals won in 1920 in (association) football and in 2020 in field hockey? List also includes four silvers and two bronzes in water polo, all in the men's competition.

23. Literally translated as the process of making something real, what Latin term denotes the fallacy of ambiguity in which an abstraction is treated as if it was something concrete?

24. The fall of which city in 1144, the seat of the namesake County and the first Crusader state founded in the Levant, is considered the direct cause of the Second Crusade?

25. In 1917, the USA paid Denmark $25 million in gold for the Virgin Islands, primarily out of fear that Germany might use the islands as a base during World War I. Named after the owner who purchased it in 1998 for about $8 million, what is the colloquial name for Little Saint James, one of the smaller islands in the archipelago?